EXPLANATION

Each race is listed by track and date, distance, type of race and placing, if in the first five and track condition in parentheses: e.g. ED Au24 11-Stks-1(g) simply means that the horse in question raced in Edmonton on the 24th of August at a distance of 11 furlongs in a Stakes race, finishing first on a good track. A rating based on the performance of the course, the earnings (not including WCRA bonuses), and the number of starts, wins, seconds, thirds, and fourths are shown to the right of the horse's name.

Please note: Unless otherwise specified, track condition will be considered as (f) fast; (m) muddy, (s) slow, (sy) sloppy, (g) good, (h) heavy. In races other than claiming, Mdn means a maiden or non-winners race, Alw Allowance, SpW Special Weights, Hcp Handicap, AlwM Maiden Allowance, Wfa Weight for Age, and Stks Stakes. If it is a claiming race, the claiming price will be listed. M1500 would be race for Maidens and $1500 claiming.

In a claiming race a (c) behind the placing means that the horse was claimed. Dead Heat is shown as (dh) and a disqualification is shown as (dq).

Distances are shown in the number of furlongs, except for M (one mile) and 1 1/16 (one mile and one-sixteenth).

Ed stands for Edmonton, Ceg Calgary, Lbg Lethbridge, Reg Regina, MD Saskatoon and AsD Winnipeg.

People who know horses know ABSORBINE

Winning trainers wouldn't use anything else. They look to Absorbine Veterinary Liniment and Absorbine Hooflex for general horse care. Experience tells them there's none better. So, if yours is a show horse or a pleasure horse go with the experts. Absorbine daily, can help you handle problems and help prevent them from happening.

Absorbine Veterinary Liniment

Used daily, it helps draw out soreness, reduce muscle lameness and swelling. Its healing ingredients help bring down swelling and restore muscle tone. Keep your horse in top condition. Top trainers recommend an Absorbine brace at the end of every workout.

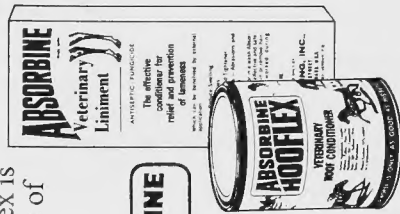

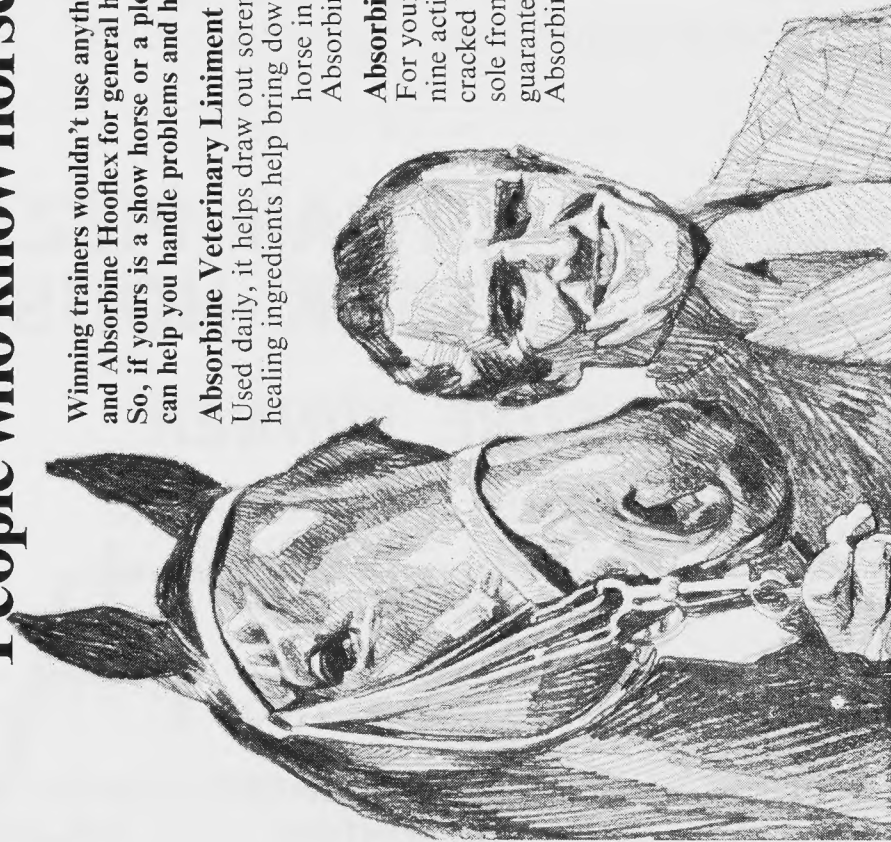

Absorbine Hooflex

For your horse's hoofs, use Absorbine Hooflex. It contains nine active ingredients. It works hard to help prevent hard cracked hoof wall and heel and helps keep the frog and sole from becoming brittle. Absorbine Hooflex is guaranteed by W. F. Young, Inc., the makers of Absorbine Veterinary Liniment.

Editorial

Thoroughbred racing reaches an important milestone in Western Canada in 1975, and the health of the sport has never been better.

In fact, the outlook might be summed up with the expression of "How High Is Up?" as thoroughbred racing prepared to go into its 50th season in the west.

There is one man who has been around all this time, and he is Lou Davies.

Lou Davies is recognized as Mr. Racing in Western Canada and with good reason. So on the threshold of the 50th anniversary it is fitting that he has been named to a new post, honorary president of the Western Canada Racing Association.

When thoroughbred racing came to the west in 1925, the prime moving force was R. J. (Jim) Speers of Winnipeg, formerly a resident of Battleford and Wilkie, Sask., who was known throughout North America as a track operator, breeder and campaigner.

Lou Davies soon joined the Speers empire, calling charts as he had done in England and throughout Western Canada.

Then he became general manager of the Speers circuit (Winnipeg, Regina, Saskatoon, Edmonton and Calgary) in 1950 upon the death of Charlie Roe.

When Polo Park closed in the mid-fifties in Winnipeg, the four tracks in Saskatchewan and Alberta banded together to form the Western Canada Racing Association, and Lou became its general manager. Subsequently the two provinces went their separate ways.

Then in 1971, as he moved into semi-retirement though still active in the sport he dearly loved, he was appointed executive vice-president, and Morris Taylor was named the new general manager.

So as thoroughbred racing enters its second half-century, the picture was never brighter.

Both Northlands Park in Edmonton and Stampede Park in Calgary have new plants with five-furlong tracks, and further improvements are in the works for each facility.

Consequently, the Exhibition boards in both cities are moving into the second 50 years proudly proclaiming with good cause that their operations are, if not major league, at least triple A, to borrow from Lou Davies' next big sporting love, baseball.

THE TWO-YEAR-OLDS

WESTERN DANGLER . . . The Horse of the Year.

For the second year in a row, the juvenile champion has been hailed as the Horse of the Year on the WCRA circuit.

And ironically, for the second straight time the new champ has emerged from the Elmbrook Stable of Edmonton, owned by Bory Margolus and trained by Red Smith.

It's a rarity when a two-year-old also doubles as the Horse of the Year, but in both cases, Sea Reason in 1973 and Western Dangler proved their rights with no dispute.

Another touch of irony is that each has been raised by Margolus, which must make Bory wonder about his major shopping expeditions all over the continent. It would seem that he has the best right at home!

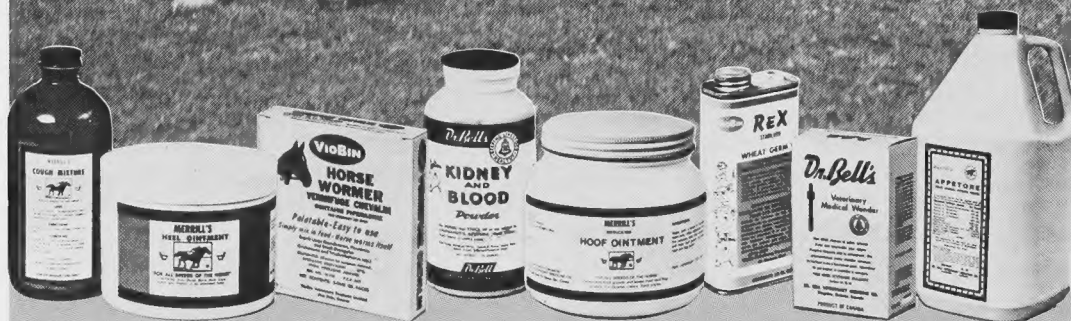

It makes three straight years, starting with Trochu Joe in 1972, that the Margolus and Smith combination has dominated the juvenile classics such as the Tiny Holden Memorial, Kindergarten, Birdcatcher Stakes and finally the Stampede Futurity.

This year the Stampede Futurity and the Trial, both swept by Western Dangler, were a mile, so it appears that he can carry his speed a good distance, which bodes well for his derby chances next year.

The chestnut gelding, beaten only once all year after finishing third to Summer High and Mr. Wind in the spring, was never tested thereafter.

NOTE: Earnings do not include WCRA bonuses.

All this and racing too!

FOR CALGARY IN 1975

For the 1975 racing season spectators will thrill to the excitement of thoroughbreds racing their way to the finish down the new 5-furlong track. And they'll see it all from the newest, most unique grandstand in all of North America.

Record breaking crowds attended last year and again are expected for 1975. Thoroughbred racing . . . exciting entertainment for Calgarians and it'll all be from a new point of view.

WITH SUSPENSION FENCING

Inexpensive Sentinel Wire Stays replace expensive posts in suspension fencing. This new fencing technique eliminates as many as 5-6 posts per 100 ft. of fence line, and reduces fence erection costs.

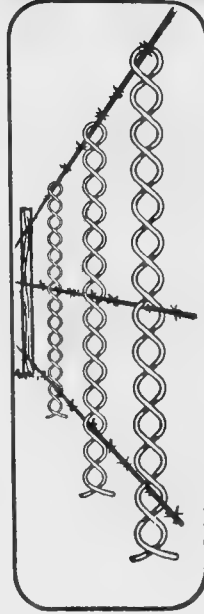

Suspension fencing turns cattle equally as well or better than standard fence, lasts as long and requires less upkeep. It is ideal for permanent fencing as well as seasonal grazing control.

THE THREE-YEAR-OLDS

PROGRESIVE HOPE . . . an upset in the Derby!

There was a veritable photo finish for top honors in the three-year-old division in 1974.

So it took the Canadian Derby to sort out the traffic jam, which then, of course, gave it to Progressive Hope from the TV Stable of Calgary, owned by Tim Casey.

County's Choice, an astonishingly good claim by Doug Engstrom and Dale Saunders, for only $4,500 in mid-season at Norlands from breeder Lloyd Wilson, was victorious in the Saskatchewan Derby. And the brilliant filly, Pilot Bird took the Alberta Derby.

But the big one is still the Canadian Derby, and Progressive Hope got up on the slippery track to get the nod.

Trained by Goody Goodwin, Progressive Hope had won two early-season features at Northlands to attract prime consideration for the derby.

He was ridden by John Whittle, who had suffered grievous injuries in a spill at Northlands in the first race of the 1972 season. Against the odds, Whittle got back to score the biggest win of his life.

"I had Progressive Hope about seventh, saving ground on the rail," Whittle related. "I didn't want to be losing a lot of ground while hung up there on the outside.

"Midway down the back-stretch, about the three-eighths pole, I let my colt run a bit, and he moved up between Norland and Pilot Bird. Midway through the turn, I knew we'd be the winner. We were gaining with every stride."

FOUR-YEAR-OLDS

JAY . . . cops inaugural Lt. Governor's Purse.

Inauguration of the Lieutenant-Governor's Purse at Northlands Park has provided a second prestige event within the age group of the four-year-olds.

Now there is a $10,000 added event in both Edmonton and Calgary. The Maturity at Stampede Park has had 10 consecutive runnings to provide continuity for the four-year-olds following their derby seasons.

Jay won the Lieutenant-Governor's Purse inaugural at six furlongs, but he failed to carry his speed over the seven furlongs in the Maturity, fading badly while Ace Return came on for the victory.

Jay, a front-running eastern-bred purchased in the fall of 1973 for a reported $20,000 by McReKunyk's S.D. (Silver Double) Farm of Calgary. The brown colt, a son of Flutterby, went wire to wire in the Northlands event with Ken Gold in the saddle. He was trained by Pinky MacDonald.

Ace Return, owned and trained by the popular veteran, Charlie Bowlen, scored a prime upset in conquering his field in the Futurity.

ALMOST AS GOOD . . . ISN'T GOOD ENOUGH

There's no substitute for VICTORY!

The proof is in the payoff. Horses wearing Victory aluminum plates have won more money, more Stakes races than all the others put together (SECRETARIAT wore them in winning the Triple Crown). Any wonder, then, that more horsemen than ever won't settle for anything less than VICTORY!

BRIGHT FUTURE PREDICTED

The purchase of Assiniboia Downs by two well-known Alberta personalities, Jim Wright and Bory Margolus, will have wide-reaching effects.

Under new ownership, the Winnipeg track is bound to show an upward trend.

There will be a tremendous amount of effort expended on promotion in order to bring the sport to the level in Winnipeg that it should have reached many years ago. A promotions man has been appointed to achieve this end.

Of great importance, too, is the fact that Wright and Margolus are anxious to work together with the other major tracks in the west in regard to scheduling meets, and also the major stakes.

It will be attempted as much as possible to avoid conflict between each other in the scheduling.

Accordingly, history was made in November at Edmonton when representatives of both Assiniboia Downs and the Western Canada Racing Commission got together to sort out their mutual problems, with regard to both thoroughbred and harness racing.

Bill Clubb will continue as manager of the Downs.

"We have high regard for Bill," Margolus states. "He is most co-operative and the horse-men like him. There will be no imminent changes in the basic staff."

The purchase was made for slightly more than $5 million from Jack Hardy, who founded Assiniboia Downs after old Polo Park went out of business following the 1956 season.

The 5½-furlong track was opened in 1958. It is planned to spend a rumored $2.5 million to renovate and add to the plant, especially with respect to patron convenience.

Margolus will send a division of his powerful Elmbrook Stable to Winnipeg, and a step in that regard was made by sending a contingent under assistant trainer Greg Petryk to Phoenix for the first time this winter.

Wright had done his racing in Ontario, with the likes of the great Page Me Doll, since 1972 when he was appointed to the Alberta Racing Commission.

A successor to Wright on the commission is expected to be announced in January.

Both Wright and Margolus also plan to operate harness stables during the standardbred season at Assiniboia Downs.

RECORD SCHEDULE FOR WCRA

An all-time record 144 racing days are in prospect for thoroughbred fans at Alberta's two major tracks.

The schedule released recently by WCRA general manager Morris Taylor revealed that Edmonton would have 72 days and Calgary 72, broken down into two meets at both Northlands Park and Stampede Park.

The season will open Friday, April 25 in Edmonton and run through Oct 14 in Calgary, thus again taking advantage of the long weekend holiday.

This reflects an increase of approximately 20 days over any previous season in Calgary and Edmonton.

The complete schedule:

EDMONTON — Fri., April 25 to Tues., June 3
(34 days)

CALGARY — Fri., June 6 to Sat., July 12
(32 days)

EDMONTON — Tues., July 17 to Wed., Aug. 27 (38 days)

CALGARY — Fri., Aug. 29 to Tues., Oct 14
(40 days)

ALL IS SERENE

A dispute over shipping costs that shut down thoroughbred racing for a day earlier this year has been resolved in a new contract running through 1976.

The horsemen were incensed over the fact that some 1,200 horses were accepted for the circuit, despite the fact that anything near this number could not be accommodated at Northlands Park.

Thus the overflow was stabled during the Edmonton action at Calgary, and trainers commuted to Northlands for their races.

The Western Canada Racing Association has agreed to pay all extra shipping costs, in following up an interim agreement that settled the initial strike.

The horsemen will continue to get their current 57.5 percent (highest in North America) of the track's mutuel take for purse monies.

In addition, achieving a long-time goal, 50 percent of the mutuel breakage will be earmarked for purses. Previously that was exclusively kept by management. In calculating to the nearest time, the breakage represents the difference between actual payoffs and the payoff calculations.

It's estimated that the breakage benefit will give at least another $100,000 a year to the horsemen.

EXPORT "A" THE BIG ONE

Canada's most popular cigarette

EXPORT "A" ACHIEVING ITS GOAL

PILOT BIRD . . . a sensational filly.

Youth was never served more dramatically than in the Export A Stakes series for fillies and mares.

Two of the main challengers to emerge this year were three-year-olds, Pilot Bird and Icy Child.

Not only were the daughters of Four-and-Twenty and Icy Note respectively capable of handling anything of their own age in their female division, but they stepped up to beat the boys frequently and then moved on impressively against older rivals of their own sex.

In fact, Pilot Bird just missed becoming the champion of the Export A series, a $60,000 affair with legs in Calgary, Edmonton and Vancouver.

She finished second to Sutter's Dream, a $53.90 upset winner at Calgary, then thrashed that coast invader at Edmonton.

Came the showdown at Vancouver, and Sutter's Dream emerged triumphant, but only by surviving a claim of foul lodged by Mike Cojocar, the trainer of Pilot Bird.

So Pilot Bird had to be satisfied with a win and two seconds, compared to two victories and an out-of-the-money for Sutter's Dream, a four-year-old California-bred owned by Mr. and Mrs. Russell Fox and trained by former prairie jockey Tommy Laidler.

John Whittle rode Sutter's Dream to her Calgary triumph, while Bruce Phelan was aboard Pilot Bird in her prairie engagements.

The Export A series, under the sponsorship of Macdonald Tobacco Inc., was inaugurated three years, and has quickly achieved its goal.

The rich series has developed an outstanding racing division of the distaff side, but it has future benefits, as well. An improvement in western breeding seems sure to result as today's race mares have their turns at raising a family.

Astonishingly, not one but two sophomores came along in 1974 to show that they belong with any of the males on the circuit, as evidenced by Pilot Bird taking the Alberta Derby.

Pilot Bird is owned by Bud Widney and Al Alger, who operate their A. and W. Farm at Okotoks. Her seventh win of the season came in the Edmonton Export A and her eighth in the Alberta Derby.

Just a little bit of a thing, she was a bargain buy for them as a yearling. It was a packed deal, and she wasn't much more than a third when Laurent Dupont sold a $4,000 yearling along with Pilot Bird for a total outlay of $6,000.

Icy Child, on the other hand, was bred and raised by Hal Yerxa, the owner of the Caribou country music radio station CFCW. Sire, Icy Note, she is out of Heavenly Child, a V. Child mare that Yerxa used to race.

She made a thrilling bid to win the Canadian Derby, leading to the stretch and then finishing second to Progressive Hope.

After passing up the Calgary Export A, trimmed Norland in the derby trial at Assiniboia Downs and was closest to Pilot Bird in the Edmonton Export A after getting off to a slow start.

ACE RETURN, obtained good position at the first turn, moved into position leaving the backstretch, moved on the outside turning for home, took the lead in midstretch, then held his margin to the end. BELMONT ROAD moved in front of the winner and closed gamely. NOBLE BOMBER closed with a belated rush in the stretch. SWIFT CASH moved to take the lead after turning for home, then faltered. GRANDIN PARK lacked racing room on the final turn. JAY, with the pace throughout while racing on the outside of PERFECT SONNET, took a clear lead turning for home, then faltered. PERFECT SONNET tired.

Scratched — Chariot Trip, Trochu Joe.

Ch. c, by Pirate Cove — Rushton's Heir, by Royal Year. Trainer, G. Magnusson. Bred by Clear Brook Stock Farm (Can.).

RUSHTON'S CORSAIR, away in the middle of the pack, made a strong move after a half, got to the front after six furlongs and opened a fair lead, then was hard pressed to maintain a narrow advantage at the end. SEA REASON, kept off the early pace, moved up steadily while saving ground, got closest to the winner in the stretch and was wearing him down. NORLAND, close up from the start, got closest to the winner after six furlongs, was shuffled back entering the stretch, then came on again but was unable to menace the leaders. BUTTERBUMP, far back early, closed a large gap. AMBER HEROD improved his position steadily to get within range in the stretch, then had nothing left. ICY CHILD raced evenly throughout without threatening. CONVERSATION was in a contending position for a half. SHERWOOD PARK showed little. PARK ROMEO set the pace for a half, then stopped. NAIGO was always far back. HIGH OCTANE and BACKSTRETCH were always outrun.

COUNTY'S CHOICE, kept off the pace for half a mile, began moving up and, upon reaching the stretch, got close to MODEL OSCAR to draw out in the final sixteenth. MODEL OSCAR, closest to the early pacesetter, went to the front after six furlongs, was unable to open up a sizeable lead and then had nothing left to offset the winner's bid. WHITE LIGHT was always well placed and had no excuses. GENTLE FARMER trailed to the stretch then closed a gap. SAWRIDGE BOY was finished after three-quarters. STORMY RIBOT set the pace for a half then stopped badly.

Overweights — Stormy Ribot, 2 pounds; Gentle Farmer, 1.

New Post Rasmusser

The popular rider, Gerry Rasmussen, is the new western manager of the Jockey's Benevolent Association.

He retired at the age of 34 to take over the post left by Edmonton-born Jackie Phillips who is now managing a farm on the coast.

Rasmussen won the job in a run-off vote against Vancouver jockey Lee Wall.

So it is no more fighting the weight for the Stettler native, who has scored many stake victories over the years including two triumphs in the Canadian Derby — in 1967 with Gilmore and in 1972 with Winning Red.

NEW GRANTS

The Alberta Racing Commission inaugurated a subsidy program for both horsemen and breeders in 1974.

Altogether the program involved $316,000, with $200,000 earmarked for increasing purses in the province.

Another $50,000 went for breeder's awards, with payments to breeders of winning Albertabreds.

The $200,000 was made retroactive to the May 10 start of the WCRA season. The major tracks at Edmonton and Calgary shared largely, with Lethbridge deriving a lesser amount.

The remainder was allotted to the standardbreds.

The grant followed a joint brief presented by the Horsemen's Benevolent and Protective Association and the Alberta Thoroughbred Horse Association, which is a provincial breeders' group.

Following are the records of the top sires, showing number of starters, winners, dams and total earnings.

Sprague to Jockey Club

Walter Sprague, a key figure over the years in developing horse racing at Northlands Park to its present stature, has been elected a member of the Jockey Club of Canada.

In making the announcement, chairman and chief steward E. P. Taylor revealed former Edmontonian Jack Stafford of Toronto, Fred Mannix of Calgary and William Hatch of Toronto were also elected.

Sprague was chairman of the racing committee for several years before becoming the president of the Edmonton Exhibition Association.

Walter was the prime moving force behind the inauguration of the Canadian Derby Breakfast when the classic was moved to Edmonton from Winnipeg in 1957, and this event has been copied by many major tracks throughout North America.

KEN HENDRICKS MAKES RUNAWAY AT WINNIPEG

Ken Hendricks made a runaway of the jockeys' race at Assiniboia Downs during the 1974 campaign.

His total of 83 winners was just one short of doubling the output of runner-up Ray Stewart.

Meanwhile, C. Gray was the leader in the training race with 30 wins, five more than R. E. Swensrud.

The leaders:

Downs Enjoys Record

Assiniboia Downs, bought late in the 1974 campaign by long-time Calgary businessman Jim Wright and Bory Margolus of Edmonton, enjoyed its most successful thoroughbred season ever.

On the closing day, a Sunday, nearly 5,500 fans wagered $356,746, the highest handle of the year.

That brought the 56-day betting total to $12,534,729, an increase of 11.4 percent over the 1973 figure of $11,251,289, the previous all-time high.

Attendance also showed an increase, as well. Official attendance was listed at 207,853, an increase of four percent over 1973.

The provincial government received $1,253,473 in pari-mutuel tax and $30,831 in amusement tax, with a goodly portion ploughed back into the sport.

RED SMITH, MULTI-STAKES WINNER, REGAINS WCRA'S TRAINING CROWN

It seems rather odd that Red Smith, newly crowned the leading trainer on the WCRA circuit, had been missing out on this particular honor in recent years despite winning major stakes with such outstanding performers as Trochu Joe and Sea Reason.

But in 1974 he finally rescaled the pinnacle after a lapse of a few years.

He saddled 50 winners, led by the multi-stake champion Western Dangler, for a wide margin of nine over runnerup Marcel Crowe.

Crowe had won the title in 1971 and 1972 before relinquishing it last year to Freddy Jones. Jones was sixth this time with 29.

In third place was another former training champ on this circuit, Ron Brock with 40.

No. 13 was anything but unlucky for Red Smith.

Over the 1974 campaign he won no fewer than 14 stake races, as follows:

Gloria Stakes, $5,000 added — Remwan.

Riverbend Handicap, $5,000 added — Snow Joke.

Stampede Futurity Trial, $5,000 added — Western Dangler.

Stampede Futurity, $1,500 added — Western Dangler.

Birdcatcher Stakes, $7,500 added — Western Dangler.

President's Handicap, $5,000 added — Edie's Prize.

Westerner Handicap, $7,500 added — Trochu Joe.

Tiny Holden Memorial Handicap, $5,000 added — Western Dangler.

Mount Royal Handicap, $5,000 added — Snow Joke.

Kindergarten Handicap, $5,000 added — Western Dangler.

Teeworth Plate, $7,500 added — Edie's Prize.

Big Four Handicap, $5,000 added — Sherwood Park.

Chinook Handicap, $5,000 added — Edie's Prize.

Spangled Jimmy Handicap, $5,000 added — Trochu Joe.

The leaders:

M. J. Crowe	41	D. L. Saunders	26
R. J. Brock	40	L. E. Cressman	25

Money-Winning Marks

Records were dramatically smashed in 1974 which direction during 1974 on the WCRA circuit.

The peerless three-year-old filly, Pilot Bird, cracked Winning Red's two-year-old record earnings figure of $40,189.

Owned by A. W. Farms at Okotoks, she amassed earnings of $42,138, chiefly from the Edmonton Export "A", the Alberta Derby, runners up the Calgary and Vancouver Export "A" and a win in the Speed Of Spare Championship, likewise from her domination of the three-year-old division.

And not just Pilot Bird beat Sea Reason's high of $29,975 in 1973. Three more (Timber Topper, Western Dangler and Progressive Hope) also topped that figure.

Meanwhile Elmbrook Stable easily clobbered its own record for stable winnings.

Thanks to such stars as Western Dangler, Edie's Prize, Trochu Joe and Snow Joke, Elmbrook Stable of Bory Margolus' totalled $134,013 in 1974 earnings. The previous mark was Elmbrook's $85,541, established the year before.

SANDY SHIELDS REACHES 1,500

It was a year to remember for Sandy Shields.

He reached the 1,500 milestone this year aboard Miss Stuart, trained by Bobby Andre who was one of Shields' earliest agents and continued in that capacity for about 14 years.

Miss Stuart is a six-year-old mare, who paid $18.40 on this occasion.

The 41-year-old veteran, who has ridden 100 stakes winners over the years such as Puck Moon, Spangled Jimmy, Ky. Quill, Doolin For Chariot Chaser and Last Hour, received a plaque from management to mark No. 1500.

The Winners

A NEW DEAL

Winnipeg breeders and owners of qualifying Manitoba-bred two- and three-year-old thoroughbreds benefitted from a new deal from the Manitoba government during 1974.

A total of $83,300 was set aside for the thoroughbred owners and breeders with $16,700 for the standardbreds, making a grand sum of $100,000.

To qualify, a horse had to be bred in Manitoba and the breeder had to be a bonafide resident of the province during the year the horse was foaled.

Half of each share was paid to the breeder and the other half to the registered owner.

RECORDS FALL

With the fans responding in a positive fashion to the new five-furlong tracks at Edmonton and Calgary, 1974 proved to be another record year on the WCRA circuit.

The largest purses ever paid out went to horsemen whose stock performed successfully during the campaign. Through 127 days of racing in Calgary and Edmonton, $2,701,729 were paid out, an increase of roughly $7.5 million over 1973.

During the season, 1,085 races were run with an average of just over $45,000 bet on each race.

As usual, Northlands showed the way with a daily average of $442,653, compared with $335,785 at Calgary.

Attendance showed a slight increase at Calgary, while Edmonton was down by a lesser amount, but Northlands still showed the way in total attendance.

The Northlands season closed out on a spectacular note, with the 18-day fall meet averaging $491,231, not missing the half-million mark by much.

Comparable figures:

CALGARY 1973 — Attendance 42 days excluding Stampede date 202,393, daily avg. 4,818. Total season handle, 51 days, $14,516,670.00. Daily average $284,640.00.

CALGARY 1974 — Attendance 58 days, excluding Stampede 9 days, 290,501, daily avg. 5,008. Total season handle, 67 days, $22,497,611.00. Daily average $335,785.00.

EDMONTON 1973 — Attendance 65 days, 398,435, daily avg. 6,129. Total season handle, 65 days, $27,100,314.00. Daily average $416,927.00.

EDMONTON 1974 — Total season handle, 60 days, $26,559,224.00. Daily average $442,653.00. Attendance, 60 days, 363,489; daily avg. 6,058.

CIRCUIT 1973 — Total season handle, 116 days, $41,616,984.00. Daily average $358,767.00.

CIRCUIT 1974 — Total season handle, 127 days, $49,056,835.00. Daily average $386,274.00.

1974 Bonus — $304,978.52.

Northlands Jockeys Scintillate in First Canadian Championship

A highlight of the 1974 season at Northlands Park was the inaugural running of the Canadian Jockey Championships, featuring 10 of the top riders in the nation.

This event tied in with the official opening of the new five-furlong racing strip at Northlands Park June 3.

With a total of 64 points, Edmonton's own Rick Hedge nudged Richard Grubb (who the day before had won the Quebec Derby with Norland) and another Northlands-based jockey, Gerry Kipling, who dead-headed just six points behind.

Right behind them was Bruce Phelan with 56

The win was worth $3,000 for Hedge, with Kipling and Grubb each picking up $750 and Phelan $400.

Alan Cuthbertson from Vancouver, with 3 points, received $100. Then came Robin Platt with 14 points, Lloyd Duffy 13, Hugo Dittfach and Jimmy Arnold of Vancouver and Billy Norri of the WCRA went pointless.

"I was lucky to have the best horses draw in for me," said Hedge, with becoming modesty. A three of his mounts drew in following morning scratches.

Each of the 10 riders (Dittfach, Duffy, Platt and Grubb coming from the Ontario circuit) had three mounts during the course of three races.

Northlands riders swept the three races — Rick Hedge with 8-5 favorite Terraro, Gerry Kipling with another favorite, Count The Spots and Phelan with $21 longshot Peaceful Cindy.

"No question about it, it proved worth while," commented Harry Hole, president of the Edmonton Exhibition Association.

"Not just because it got us national attention. It was also financially profitable.

"On a normal Monday, we do about $400,000 at this time of year. This time we handled $486,058 and our crowd of 6,283 was probably up about 2,000. I think we made some new fans from people who were lured by the prospect of our riders taking on their counterparts from Ontario and Vancouver.

"I am confident that this event will really be built into something."

CORREA, JEWELL COP SASKATCHEWAN HONORS

R. A. Correa and Normie Jewell shared the ding honors on the Saskatchewan Jockey Club circuit.

Correa was tops at Saskatoon with 24 victories out of 78 attempts, nine more than runnerup Dunham.

Jewell showed the way during the Regina phase of the season with 19 victories, eight more than second place C. Thom.

W. R. Houliston with seven victories led the trainers' brigade at Regina, while K. C. Adams' eight triumphs was tops at the Saskatoon meet.

The Regina meet went from Aug. 15 to Aug. 1, while Saskatoon held forth Sept. 2 to Sept. 18.

LARGEST PURSES EVER

Records continued to fall in 1974 at Northlands Park and Stampede Park.

The largest purses ever paid out went to horsemen whose stock campaigned during the 1974 season. Through 127 days of racing in Calgary and Edmonton, more than $2.7 million was paid out, an increase of close to half a million dollars over 1973.

This represented an increase of 11 days in the racing season.

Total betting at the two tracks surged to $49 million, about $7.5 million increase.

During 1974 there were 1,085 races run for an average handle per race of $45,213. This compared to $25,978 per race just 10 years earlier.

$1914 EXACTOR

A $1,914 exactor payoff hit the headlines during the 1974 season at Calgary's new Stampede Park.

It resulted when the stewards disqualified Blue Bouncer and placed her fifth.

The disqualification allowed 13 bettors to share in the spoils. Moving up to be first was Tip The Boss, who paid $82.60 to win and Flying Eskimo who was promoted from his third place finish.

Taking the lead around horses, Blue Bouncer knocked O'Bibi Asset into Dangling Maid.

OUTSTANDING SUCCESS FOR MEDICINE HAT IN INAUGURAL

How high is up?

That could well be the slogan of the Medicine Hat Exhibition Association following its auspicious inaugural in 1974 in thoroughbred racing.

"We held four days of racing in 1974," notes Vic Schafer of the Medicine Hat group, "And we were delighted with our success.

"We exceeded Red Deer's second year by $10,000 in our first year.

"Medicine Hat is a good sporting town. Give our people a good product and they'll support you."

Medicine Hat's dates, decided upon through the Canada West Turf Association, will number five in conjunction with the annual exhibition. The racing, with eight-race cards, is scheduled to run from Tuesday, July 22 to Saturday, July 26.

New barns are available, and for stalls, horsemen should phone 526-3979, Medicine Hat.

RICK HEDGE WINS WCRA RIDING CROWN FOR SECOND CONSECUTIVE

Rick Hedge has the winning habit.

It was just a year ago that the native of Duffield, Alta., just west of Edmonton, captured his first riding championship on the WCRA circuit.

In 1974 he made it two in a row with 107 victories, shading the sensational apprentice Herb Ollive from Botha, Alta., who made a rush through the last part of the season to finish with 106.

It was a nip and tuck battle between the pair that went down to the last race of the season which Hedge won in a photo finish at Stampede Park in Calgary.

Hedge was awarded with Cecil Ross Memorial Trophy and a diamond ring. Ollive won a cash award as leading apprentice.

Dewayne Wiseman of Stettler finished third with 90 winners and for the second year in a row rode the most third place finishers, 74.

Last year's leading apprentice, Bruce Phelan of Edmonton, finished seventh in the over-all standings with 55 winners after missing much of the late part of the season with an injury.

NEW HONOR FOR DAVIES

Western Canada's Mr. Racing, Lou Davies has been named honorary president of the Western Canada Racing Association.

This is a new post that has been created for the recently retired general manager of the WCRA.

Lou, 74, makes his home in Edmonton and his career has spanned 50 years.

In his earlier years, he had called charts in England as many points in the States and Montreal before coming west. Upon the death of Charlie Roe, Davies was named operating manager of the R. J. Speers Corporation based in Winnipeg, when it conducted thoroughbred racing on the prairie circuit.

In 1957, he was instrumental in formation of the Western Canada Racing Association, concentrating on Alberta and Saskatchewan tracks after Polo Park closed down at Winnipeg.

Subsequently, Alberta and Saskatchewan went their separate ways, and Calgary and Edmonton shared a full season of thoroughbred dates.

He remained as general manager of the association until 1971 when he became executive vice-president.

CLAIMING PRICE BOOSTED

The combination of inflation and the growth of thoroughbred racing hereabouts has resulted in the minimum claiming price on the WCRA circuit being raised to $2,000 from $1,500 for 1975.

Minimum advertised purse on the circuit will be boosted to $1,700 from $1,500.

With the bonus money, the minimum was $1,710 in 1974.

This compared to $1,921.78 a year ago, but the drop is explained to a new system of distribution as requested by the horsemen.

Any surplus over the advertised purses realized from the 57½ percent share of the track's nine percent mutual take goes back to the horsemen at the end of the season in the form of bonuses.

During 1974, the bonus was doled out on the basis of approximately 14 percent to the value of the purse, instead of being paid out equally for all races, regardless of the purse value.

Another change was that races with purses from $5,000 to $7,500 inclusive were now eligible to the bonus distribution of $304,978.52. So the bonuses per race ranged from about $210 for $1,500 minimum to $1,050 for $7,500 purses.

THREE-YEAR-OLDS AND UP

NORLAND . . . thumps the older ones!

It was a year of ups and downs for Norland, an invader from the east owned by Kinghaven Farm.

He won the Quebec Derby at Woodbine, but missed the Queen's Plate when it was believed that he was suffering from a quarter-crack.

When he got back into action, he finished third to Rushton's Corsair and Sea Reason in the Manitoba Derby after being beaten by Icy Child in the derby trial at Assiniboia Downs.

When he came to Edmonton, the E. P. Taylor-bred son of Right Combination and a Victoria Park mare, Unperturbable, won the Canadian Derby Trial, but had trouble with the footing in the Derby itself, and wound up third.

Before he took his leave of Edmonton, trainer Andy Smithers, who had Jack Hutchison pinch-hitting for him in his Northlands engagements, decided to try him against the older ones, a division which had shown no stickout over the year.

That was the Speed To Spare Championship, and Norland, with Dwayne Wiseman aboard, became the third sophomore ever to beat older horses in this classic (Trial Boy and Count Siempre did it before him in 1957 and 1972 respectively), and in track record time, too!

Norland then went on to capture the B.C. Derby, but he broke down in that race, and had to forego his plans to take in the Alberta Derby before returning to Toronto for the Breeders and the Woodbine Invitational.

NOTE: Earnings do not include WCRA bonuses.

ASSINIBOIA DOWNS REVISES PURSE STRUCTURE FOR 1975

One of the first changes after the new regime headed by Jim Wright and Bory Margolus took over Assiniboia Downs was to revise the purse structure, in particular involving the Manitoba Derby.

"We want to do what's best for racing in Manitoba and everybody who patronizes our track," Wright points out.

"In recent years, that $100,000 purse money for the Manitoba Derby always went east for the most part, and not once in the last three years has a Manitoba horse finished in the first four.

"Our new purse structure, we're confident, will upgrade the breeding industry in this part of the country."

Accordingly, the Manitoba Derby will now be a $30,000 added affair, and the Winnipeg Futurity for two-year-olds becomes $20,000 added.

Minimum claiming will now be $1,500, with a minimum purse of $1,400. Other existing stakes are increased by a total of $10,000.

A feature for 1975 will be the inauguration of colors by post positions for the jockeys. This will be the first time at a major Canadian race track that the colors have not been according to the stable silks.

The thoroughbreds will go for 70 days, from May 6 to Sept. 2, four days a week. Harness racing will be on a five-a-week schedule from Sept. 7 to Nov. 11 for 48 days in all.

Other stake changes will be a new $5,000 added Graduation Stakes for two-year-olds, and two new $5,000 added affairs for three-year-olds called the Sophomore and Riel Stakes.

Jim Wright will occupy the post of president, with Bory Margolus vice-president. Bill Clubb continues as general manager, with Craig MacDonald race secretary. Other positions are filled by Harry Jeffrey Jr., track superintendent; Joe Parsonage, admissions manager; and Chris King, secretary.

BANG TALES

by Shudda Haddim

It was Mackie McCallum on the other end of the blower, the old curling champ who owns the magnificent old grey, Major Presto, in partnership with his brother, Jack.

He announced that the Major was safe and sound down at Phoenix for another winter, the Arizona kind that he has grown to love. After all, he's down there with all the other retired folks, except that Major Presto isn't about to call it quits.

"Our trainer, Charlie Jasper, just wants to keep him loose," Mackie declared. "He won't race until the turn of the year probably, but you know, like everybody else his age, it takes a little longer to come around.

"You know, the only regret I have from the 1974 campaign, is that he couldn't win a stake race. So many times, he was right there with the best of them, but a stakes triumph just eluded him.

"But there is still 1975. At the age of 12, that is his last year at the races, and he showed on so many occasions in the 1974 that he still belongs."

As a for-instance, on the third of August at beautiful new Stampede Park, he conquered an allowance field that was to grace many a handicap lineup during the season. By an unkind twist of fate, he missed having this as a stakes race.

Just about the best on the grounds finished behind him in that race, as he decisioned Son of Crispin by a neck in the debut of the latter one on this circuit, purchased during the summer in the east by Jack Anderson of Devon.

It was the Journal Handicap that Son of St. Crispin won, and this was a case of Anderson's steed following in Major Presto's footsteps. In 1970 the Major had won this same race.

In 1973, Major Presto, the gallant son of Canorous and Flurry, gained international recognition by winning a stakes at the age of 10. When he captured the Continental Handicap that year, he was the oldest stakes winner of North America.

Mackie McCallum had been talking to Tony Ziegler a few days earlier, and Tony, who also campaigns in Phoenix during the winter, asked Mackie if he had given thought to dropping him down to $7,500 or $8,500 claiming ranks where he conceivably would meet a softer brunch.

"I said no way," McCallum declared. "As long as he is able to tackle the best on the circuit, he'll stay at the races. But if I have to drop him down, we'd know that the game old guy just doesn't have it any more, and maybe racing wouldn't be fun for him then.

"If that happens, then we'll just take him back to the farm and look at him."

RIBOT BLOOD RUNS TRUE

by Al Dahl

(Extract from Calgary Albertan October 4, 1974)

In retrospect, everybody should have known.

The name after all, was there for everyone to see.

Ribot.

Undefeated champion race horse of Europe. The world's greatest sire of classic winners.

When he died two years ago, it called for an eight-page obituary and the article was entitled "One Which Gave His Name To An Epoch."

Among his sons were Arts And Letters, Tom Rolfe, Graustark and Nu Ribot.

Nu Ribot?

Winner of one race in his life.

But that isn't really a fair way to describe him. Nu Ribot didn't start as a two-year-old and was injured as a three-year-old while competing in the California Derby.

Thursday, when a handsome chestnut colt came home by five lengths at Stampede Park, it was verification of something race observers had begun to suspect in the past two seasons.

That Nu Ribot may be one of the best stallion prospects in Alberta.

The two-year-old that's helped developed that thinking was Ribot Hash, a $6.50 conqueror of some good babies.

Heads apart far behind were Stellar Selection, Thru The Mirror and Why Reason. None of these probably could be bought for $10,000.

Nu Ribot stood for a fee of $400 this season. From the moderate mares he received however, he has performed phenomenally. Among his three-year-olds have been the winners, Risk 'n' Hope and Tip The Boss. Earlier this week, a two-year-old named Conundrum just parked in only the third start of his career.

Actually, Alberta breeders were given an even better hint that Nu Ribot was one to look at, when El Chico Capitan came up from Phoenix last season and won three in a row, including a handicap at Winnipeg.

Other winners by Nu Ribot are Borque ($62,286), RUNNING STAR $19,509), Burnaby H.
